Degrees Completed by June 1983

The Degree of Doctor of Engineering

Monir Ahmad
B.S., Pakistan University
M.S., Tuskegee Institute
Dissertation: "Optimal Power Dispatch Under Network Constraints."

Amir Ali Alhaddad
B.S., Stevens Institute of Technology
M.S., Georgia Institute of Technology
Dissertation: "Heat Transfer in Pulsatile Flow."

Richard August
B.S.M.E., Case Western Reserve University
M.S.M.E., Cleveland State University
Dissertation: "Dynamics of Planetary Gear Trains."

Smritimay Datta
B.E.E., University of Calcutta
M.S.C.E., Wayne State University
Dissertation: "A Study of Dynamic Energy Equations with Application to Stirling Cycle Engines."

Paul Oonyong Hong
B.S., University of Maryland
M.S., University of Maryland
Dissertation: "Unsteady State Liquid-Liquid Dispersions in Agitated Vessels."

Chih-Piao Hung
B.S.E.E., Taiwan University
M.S.E.E., Cleveland State University
Dissertation: "A New Sensing Device for Controlling a Moving Slab."

James M. Moran
B.C.E., Cleveland State University
M.S.C.E., Cleveland State University
Dissertation: "Force Transmission Across the Joints of the Human Index Finger."

Alireza Paravar
B.S. Che., Tehran University
M.S. Ch.E., Worcester Polytechnic Institute

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA

The university regalia is inherited from the medieval universities of the eleventh and twelfth centuries when a university was an ecclesiastical community. Through long inheritance the academic procedure of a modern university includes the ancient forms and ceremonies which are most noticeably marked in the dress of those who participate in academic convocations.

Academic life, as we know it today, began in the Middle Ages — at Oxford and Cambridge, Paris and Bologna, Edinburgh, and Louvain — first in the Church, then in the guilds. The teaching guild was the Guild of the Master of Arts, where the Bachelor was the apprentice of the Master, and the dress was the outward sign of privilege and responsibility. The dress made visible in color and pattern the association of men of like purpose. The principal features of the academic costume are three:

THE CAP. The freed Roman slave won the privilege of wearing a cap. The academic cap is a sign of the freedom of scholarship and endows the wearer with new scholastic responsibilities and dignities. Old poetry suggests that the cap of scholarship is square to symbolize a book, although some authorities claim that the mortar board is the symbol of the masons, a privileged guild. The color of the tassel on the cap denotes the discipline. In some European universities a pudding-shaped cap, another guild symbol, is worn, while occasionally a cap similar to the one worn by the great scholar Erasmus is part of the costume.

Black tassels are correct for all degrees, and colored tassels are worn only by preference. Gold metallic tassels may be worn by doctors or presidents of universities and colleges. The tassel should be worn draped over the left front quarter of the cap.

THE GOWN. The flowing gown comes from the twelfth century. Many believe it was worn as protection against the cold of unheated buildings. It has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it completely covers any dress of rank or social standing underneath. It is black for all degrees. The bachelor's and master's degree gowns are untrimmed. The doctoral gown is faced with velvet in front and has three bars of velvet across the sleeves in the color distinctive of the faculty or discipline to which the degree pertains.

THE HOOD. The hood is an inverted shield with one or more chevrons of a secondary color on the background of the primary color of the college. The color of the facing of the hood denotes the discipline represented by the degree; the color of the lining of the hood designates the university or college which granted the degree.
